The Shonan course and KMY course will both have two starting points. The relay will start from: 1. The Hachiko statute (9:30am). You may know from the 2009 film "Hachiko: A Dog's Story" starring Richard Gere. 2. Kamakura Kotokuin Temple (8:30am). One of the most famous statute of Buddha, the "Daibutsu" is here. 3. Jogashima Lighthouse (8:30am). We will gather at the 2nd Parking Area of the "Jogashima Todai Shotengai". 4. Shinsen Home (9:00am). This is one of the Children's Homes in Kanagawa prefecture. 5. Hiratsuka City Park (10:00am). This is a comprehensive park with gymnasium, baseball ground, and a stadium. Please join us at the "Hiratsuka no Harappa"!

[Events held at the goal and relay points] We are going to hand out handmade orange ribbons at each relay point. The relay points include places such as Tokyo Tower, shrines and temples, and beaches. Shinko Chuo Hiroba (Minatomirai, Yokohama), there will be a stage where we'll have brass band, singer, and pantomime performance. There will be a variety of booths open from 10am to 15pm. There also will be children's playground for families to join. You shouldn't miss the goal scene, when all the runners gather and breast the tape at once.

[Prayer Friendship Quilt] We will have a booth praying for the rehabilitation from 3.11 disaster at the goal. Please write your message for the children in Tohoku area on one of the quilt. The quilts will be sewed together into a huge orange TASUKI to be delivered to the children.
